QUEBEC PARTICIPANTS

For Participants who are residents of Quebec, the assumption of risk, release of liability, waiver of claims and indemnification provisions contained in this Agreement are not applicable to (a) any bodily or moral injury, or death caused by the RHF or its employees, contractors, volunteers, officers, directors, shareholders, agents or representatives; or (b) any other injury, loss or damage which is caused by the actions, or by an intentional, gross recklessness, gross carelessness or gross negligence of the RHF or its employees, contractors, volunteers, officers, directors, shareholders, agents or representatives.

ASSUMPTION OF RISKS

The RHF takes safeguarding of youth very seriously. The RHF strives to maintain a safe environment for youth Participants in the Activity. All adult staff of the RHF involved in the Activity are screened and have received orientation and training in abuse awareness and prevention. The RHF will implement safety prevention measures and will be monitoring the Activity for security purposes. However, there may be organizations or individuals participating in the event that have not taken the same steps to screen and train their staff, including but not limited to, speakers, event managers, and technical support. The RHF recommends that parents and legal guardians do their due diligence in coaching their children on safety online and check in with the Participant during and after the Activity.

I understand that there are inherent risks, dangers and hazards, involved in the Participant's participation in the Activity. The Activity has foreseeable and unforeseeable inherent risks, hazards and dangers that no amount of care, caution, or expertise can eliminate. The variety of risks is more than can be listed and may vary depending on the Activity. Some of the more significant risks, dangers, and hazards include, but are not limited to:

1. Negligent advice regarding the Activity.
2. The Participant's failure to act safely or within the Participant's own ability or within designated areas and guidelines.
3. Negligent Conduct on the part of other participants and Activity personnel leading to physical or emotional injury, death, or damage to personal property.
4. Defective, dangerous, or unsafe condition of the facilities; falls; collisions with objects, walls, or persons; dangerous, unsafe, or irregular conditions on the floor or other surfaces.
5. Physical injury, minor or fatal accidents due to travel to and from the Activities.
6. Changing and inclement weather, including storms, high winds, and lightning.
7. Grooming behaviours that could lead to abuse, verbal, sexual and emotional harassment or discrimination.
8. Fatigue; dehydration; water or food borne illness; the transmission of communicable diseases, including COVID-19 and viruses of all kinds.

I FREELY ACCEPT AND FULLY ASSUME ALL RISKS, DANGERS AND HAZARDS AND THE POSSIBILITY OF PERSONAL INJURY, HARM, ILLNESS, DEATH, PROPERTY DAMAGE OR LOSS, RESULTING THEREFROM, AND RESPONSIBILITY FOR LOSSES, COSTS AND DAMAGES, HOWEVER CAUSED, THAT I INCUR AS A RESULT OF THE PARTICIPANT'S PARTICIPATION IN THE ACTIVITY.

APPENDIX B: Forum Vancouver Regional Event Code of Conduct

Program Shared Values & Expected Behaviours:

Be friendly, patient, and welcoming

We value creating a positive learning environment based on friendliness and patience and we strive to be a community that welcomes and supports people of all backgrounds and identities. Help create welcoming, inclusive, safe(r) spaces for people from diverse backgrounds – don't discriminate against others because of their identity. This includes but is not limited to: members of any race, ethnicity, culture, national origin, colour, immigration status, social and economic class, educational level, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, age, size, family status, political belief, religion, and mental and physical ability. Be friendly, patient and always welcoming.

Be considerate

Any decision you take will affect others, and you should take those consequences into account when making decisions. Please remember that we're a national community, so you might not be communicating in someone else's primary language.

Be respectful

Not all of us will agree all the time, but disagreement is no excuse for poor behavior and poor manners. We might all experience some frustration now and then, but we cannot allow that frustration to turn into a personal attack. It's important to remember that a community where people feel uncomfortable or threatened is not a productive one. Please be respectful when dealing with other participants and community members. This includes, but is not limited to:

- Respecting others when they are speaking and sharing.
- Be mindful of how much time and space you're taking up and consider if others have had a chance to ask questions or share their perspectives.

Be careful in the words and actions that you choose – any type of harassment is unacceptable

Be kind to others. Do not insult or put down other participants. Harassment and other exclusionary behavior are not acceptable. This includes, but is not limited to:

- Violent threats or language directed against another person.
- Discriminatory jokes and language.
- Posting sexually explicit or violent material.
- Posting (or threatening to post) other people's personally identifying information ("doxing").
- Personal insults, especially those using racist, sexist terms, ableist (i.e., stupid), homophobic (i.e., that's gay), transphobic, or classist.
- Unwelcome sexual attention.
- Advocating for, or encouraging, any of the above behavior.
- Repeated harassment of others. In general, if someone asks you to stop, then stop.
- Misgendering someone intentionally when provided pronouns.
- Not making assumptions about a person's pronouns based on their perceived gender expression. If a pronoun assumption is made and you are corrected, humbly apologize, but do not dwell, as this can also make individuals feel uncomfortable/unwelcome.

When we disagree, try to understand why

Disagreements happen all the time. It is important that we resolve disagreements and differing views constructively. Remember that we are different. The strength of the Forum for Young Canadians program comes in large part from its varied community, people from a wide range of backgrounds. Different people have different perspectives on issues. Being unable to understand why someone holds a viewpoint doesn't mean that they're wrong. Instead, focus on helping to resolve issues and learning from mistakes and to look at our own role in a minor disagreement and work towards a solution wherever possible.

Create spaces free from violence, abuse and harassment

The Rideau Hall Foundation and Forum for Young Canadians believe in the prevention of violence, abuse and harassment. We promote violence-free in-person and online spaces where all people respect one another and work together. Unwelcome words or actions that are known (or should be known) to be offensive, embarrassing, humiliating or demeaning or behaviour that intimidates, isolates, or even discriminates against another participant or member of our community will not be tolerated. Behaviours that are not acceptable and will not be tolerated include:

- Harassment or discrimination based on race, class, gender identity, sexuality, religion, or ethnic background.
- Making remarks, jokes, or innuendos that demean, ridicule, intimidate, or offend.
- Verbally abusive behaviours, such as yelling, insults, and name-calling.
- Engaging in implicit or explicit sexual acts or forcing or encouraging a person to engage in implicit or explicit sexual acts alone or with another person of any age of the same or opposite sex.
- Sexual epithets, jokes, written or spoken references to sexual conduct, gossip regarding one's sex life, and comments about an individual's sexual activity, deficiencies, or prowess.
- Verbal abuse of a sexual nature.
- Display of sexually suggestive objects, pictures, or drawings.
- Sexual leering or whistling, any inappropriate and obscene language or gestures, and suggestive or insulting comments.
- Spreading malicious rumours.
- Excluding or ignoring someone.
- Sabotaging someone else's work.
- Making false allegations about someone.
- Displaying or circulating offensive pictures or materials.
- Bullying.
- Even if no one is being directly targeted, words or actions can have a negative impact on the community environment, making it a hostile or uncomfortable place in which to work.

Be honest and transparent.

Be Present. Try Your Best. Have Fun!

Our intent is that the anyone in the Forum community can stand up for this code, and direct people who are unaware to become familiar with this document. If you believe you, or anyone else, is in any kind of danger, please notify the appropriate supervisors or law enforcement.
